Description / Abstract

Dispute Resolution: Negotiation, Mediation, Arbitration, and Other Processes, provides overviews, critical examinations, and analyses of the application of ADR's three main processes for settling legal disputes without litigation— negotiation, mediation, and arbitration—and issues raised as these processes are combined, modified, and applied. This casebook challenges students to develop new processes and applications and provides them tools to master the legal issues facing lawyers who utilize the major dispute resolution processes. this book also assists students in building the skills a modern lawyer needs to represent clients in these critical processes.
